Peter P. Martini

Boston – Hill International recently announced the promotion of Program Manager Peter P. Martini, MCPPO to vice president.

As vice president, Peter will lead Hill's Boston/Needham office for the company's Project Management Group. His responsibilities at Hill encompass acquiring work, overseeing assignments, and managing the New England staff and business.

Martini has more than 40 years of industry experience as a construction executive with a proven track record of leadership for a wide range of construction projects, teams, and clients. His experience as both a general contractor and owner's representative embodies key services to support the entire project life cycle from both financial and operational standpoints.
