Hill International has received a three-year contract from Bank Aljazira to provide project management services for Aljazira's Regional Management Office Building in Riyadh. The project will be one of Riyadh's landmarks, reflecting Bank Aljazira's image and its alignment with the Saudi Arabia National Vision 2030. The project location is planned to be north of the Capital, in the center of new major developments for the next 20 years. Hill International provides program management, project management, construction management and other consulting services to clients in a variety of market sectors. According to Engineering News-Record magazine, Hill International is the eighth-largest construction management firm in the United States.
