A safety expert from the region has selected ENR New England's 2020 Best Projects safety award winners.

The Excellence in Safety winner, along with the Safety Award of Merit winner, will be honored as part of the Best Projects 2020 awards on Nov. 20 awards event. To receive more information about the Regional Best Projects events, please visit <https://www.enr.com/enr-best-projects-awards/request-more-info>

All of the Best Project winners and Award of Merit winners will be honored at the event and profiled more in depth in the November issue of ENR New England.

This year's safety judge was Kurt Dunmire, regional safety director at Clark Construction Group LLC.

This year's winners are:
