Construction Week is thrilled to reveal yet another high-profile name for our Leaders Egypt conference with the confirmation of New York Stock Exchange-listed Hill International's Waleed Abdel Fattah for the event.

Speaking on the Evolution of New Cities panel at 10:15am (EG), Hill International's Senior Vice President and Managing Director for Africa, Waleed Abdel Fattah, will discuss the company's activities for Egypt's New Administrative Capital.

Abdel Fattah will be joined on the panel alongside Fady Kobersy, Head of Sales and Customer Success at Construction Computer Software (CCC), Darryl Custer, Executive Director for Design at KEO International Consultants, Moustafa Abdel Wahab, General Manager of ASGC Egypt, and Mohamed Talaat, Founder of MT Architects.

Taking place on the 13 July at the JW Marriott in Cairo, Leaders in Construction Egypt will comprise a keynote speech and four panel discussions on The Evolution of New Cities in Egypt, The Opportunities for Water Projects, Are PPPs the answer to Egypt's funding issues?, and Egypt's acceleration of its infrastructure sector.

The confirmed line-up for the conference so far includes Hassan Allam Holding CEO [Eng.
