

Abdullah Alnabhan

Managing Director for the Middle East
Key Focus: Transactional Diligence

With more than 20 years of international advisory experience, Abdullah Alnabhan advises public- and private-sector clients throughout the Middle East on strategic planning, portfolio development, and the delivery of internationally significant programs. Abdullah has provided advisory services for landmark initiatives such as Expo 2020 Dubai, Saudi Vision 2030, and UAE 2031. His approach focuses on helping clients translate their long-term visions into executable programs through robust governance and performance management frameworks.

As Managing Director for the Middle East, Abdullah is responsible for leading Hill’s advisory growth in the region. He also oversees the Middle East operations of our GISI Consulting Group sister company, Palladium. In this cross-company role, Abdullah brings together multidisciplinary teams to deliver integrated, impactful advisory solutions.
